slavoj Žižek is undoubtedly one of the world's leading cultural critics his witty psychoanalytically inspired analyses of contemporary society have almost single handedly revived the notion of ideology his brilliant commentaries on the french psychoanalyst jacques lacan and the 19th century german idealists have brought alive their often difficult ideas for a new generation of readers but does Žižek have anything to say in his own right is there a system of thought that we can properly call Žižekian this book argues that there is through a reading of two terms in his work the master signifier and the act featuring an interview with Žižek himself slavoj Žižek live theory presents a snapshot of the Žižek system ideal for undergraduates in social and cultural theory and philosophy this second book of the real magic series continues to explore the ancient hermetic teachings as a mental art the art of using consciousness itself as the tool for creating changes in consciousness what does the hermetic axiom as above so below really mean the relationship between macrocosm above and microcosm below is the key to the hermetic teachings macrocosm refers to the eternal reality of light the realm of god microcosm is its reflection a fragmentation of light the world of human existence and human ego the core of the hermetic teachings for centuries has been focused on transforming the fragmented body of light in human consciousness and uniting below with above
